Introducing Sapient Press!

Sapient Press is an American-based open access publisher of peer reviewed academic journals that cover a broad range of social science (business, economics, etc.) and education related disciplines. Sapient also offers conferences organized to facilitate the sharing of collective research.

For more details, please visit: www.sapientpress.com!

Editors / Reviewers Requested

Sapient Press is currently seeking editors and reviewers to assist with the publishing of our three journals. This opportunity is especially geared towards new professors and PhD holders looking to broaden their experience and build their resumes. If you have academic experience in social science fields related to business or economics or education-based fields such as TESOL, language instruction or linguistics, please contact admin@sapientpress.com.

Call for Publishing!

Sapient Press welcomes the submission of original manuscripts that relate to a broad range of business, economics and other social science related disciplines as well as topics related to teaching, education and language learning. Manuscripts should meet the general criteria of significance and scientific excellence. Sapient Press will publish articles in basic and applied research and case studies. Visit the site for more information.

We invite you to submit your manuscripts to editor@sapientpress.com for publication in one of our family of academic journals.

Featured Paper: Internationalization Speed of Developing Country SMEs: An Empirical Look into Kenya

Our featured IJKIB article was written by Adam Cave, Ph.D. The article identifies which factors determine a firm's speed of internationalization. The implications from this study range from both theoretical to practical in terms of better understanding the outlook of current SMEs in Kenya and the barriers experienced in attempting to navigate the global business environment.
